STATE AND CITY LEGISLATORS TO HOLD CRIME PREVENTION FORUM

(HONOLULU, HI) — Honolulu City Councilmember Ann Kobayashi, Senator Brian Taniguchi, Representatives Kirk Caldwell, Scott Nishimoto and Scott Saiki will hold an Anti-Crime Community Forum to address the growing concern of crime in the Manoa, McCully-Moiliili, and Kapahulu communities.

Joining the discussion will be members from the Honolulu Police Department who will speak on various crime prevention issues. Discussion items will include theft, neighborhood watch, keiki and kupuna identification print, and other anti-crime implementation methods.

The forum will be held at Ala Wai Elementary, 503 Kamoku Street, on Saturday, November 8, 2003 from 9:30 a.m. — 11:00 a.m.
